A GEOMETRIC STEEL DESIGN THAT MELDS ARTISTRY WITH FUNCTIONALITY

Introducing the latest addition to Normann Copenhagen's accessories repertoire. Fem Bowl is a fusion of artistry and functionality, a decorative and utilitarian design in equal measure. Crafted meticulously from mirror-polished stainless steel, Fem is an exquisite piece that captivates with its geometric and reflective allure.

Taking its name from the Danish word for the number five, "Fem", the bowl features a striking silhouette comprised of five triangular pieces that seamlessly converge to form a symmetrical pentagon, constituting the bowl itself. The base is fashioned in a five-star construction carefully welded together, another reference to the number five.

Fem Bowl stands as a testament to craftsmanship and originality, offering a striking design that will elevate any interior and cater to a wide variety of uses, whether practical or purely decorative.
