A MODERN REINTERPRETATION OF MID-CENTURY DESIGN LEGACY

With its cubistic, almost brutalist frame, the 3-seater Kube Sofa is softened by plush cushions placed loosely on the seat, back and armrests. Drawing on mid-century design traditions, Kube seamlessly blends a straightforward wooden frame with comfortable upholstered cushions in a contrasting yet well-balanced design.

The frame's construction stands out, showcasing the beauty of craftsmanship through the thoughtful way the pine planks meet, creating a dynamic, almost sculptural quality. The thick planks emphasize the durability and beauty of the material, which will develop a natural patina over time, infusing the design with character.
