Pola – Sofa

Design by Sebastian Herkner

The massive wood base of the Pola sofa is a nod to Sebastian Herkner's passion for craftsmanship and forgotten ancestral techniques.

The designer had in mind the traditional architecture of woodwork and the joinery details. The upside-down Pola's frame is not above the head but rather below and the smooth wooden beam construction gives a floating aspect to the opulent cushions.

The elegant textile straps and the refined structure give a modern approach to this tailored sofa. A generous and robust design.

SEBASTIAN HERKNER

The German designer Sebastian Herkner, born 1981, studied Product Design at HfG Offenbach University of Art and Design. Designing objects and furniture, he honed his keen sense for materials, colors and textures. After working for Stella McCartney in London, Sebastian Herkner founded his own studio in 2006 and he has designed furniture, lamps and smaller items for manufacturers.

An unconditional love for traditional craftsmanship paired with a good feel for new technologies, a true flair for color, authentic materials and textures, an unadulterated curiosity for different cultures, these are the characteristics of Sebastian Herkner's work, from objects and furniture creation to interior architecture projects.

His works have won numerous prizes.

Maison&Objet Paris has also elected him 2019 "Designer of the Year".
